

Overnight Guests at Camp Foley

We want to extend a warm welcome to our guests and we hope that you are excited to for the wedding celebration of your loved ones. The following information is to assist you with making your stay comfortable.

You will be sleeping in a clean but rustic cabin where our summer campers make their home. Each cabin has electricity and bunk beds with wood burning barrel stove heat, fans, and storage and hanging space for personal items. Bathrooms and showers are centrally located in a bath house with hot water. There are sidewalks that will lead you from the roads to your cabins making roller luggage ideal and cars are parked in a parking lot a short distance away. In each cabin there is a posted phone number of the Foley facilitator to call if you need assistance.
